REGULATION OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL

on certain procedures for applying the Stabilisation and Association Agreement between the European Communities and their Member States, of the one part, and Bosnia and Herzegovina, of the other part, and for applying the Interim Agreement on trade and trade-related matters between the European Community, of the one part, and Bosnia and Herzegovina, of the other part (codification)

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

1. In the context of a people's Europe, the Commission attaches great importance to simplifying and clarifying the law of the Union so as to make it clearer and more accessible to citizens, thus giving them new opportunities and the chance to make use of the specific rights it gives them.

This aim cannot be achieved so long as numerous provisions that have been amended several times, often quite substantially, remain scattered, so that they must be sought partly in the original instrument and partly in later amending ones. Considerable research work, comparing many different instruments, is thus needed to identify the current rules.

For this reason a codification of rules that have frequently been amended is also essential if the law is to be clear and transparent.

- 2. On 1 April 1987 the Commission decided<sup>1</sup> to instruct its staff that all acts should be codified after no more than ten amendments, stressing that this is a minimum requirement and that departments should endeavour to codify at even shorter intervals the texts for which they are responsible, to ensure that their provisions are clear and readily understandable.
- 3. The Conclusions of the Presidency of the Edinburgh European Council (December 1992) confirmed this<sup>2</sup>, stressing the importance of codification as it offers certainty as to the law applicable to a given matter at a given time.

Codification must be undertaken in full compliance with the normal procedure for the adoption of acts of the Union.

Given that no changes of substance may be made to the instruments affected by codification, the European Parliament, the Council and the Commission have agreed, by an interinstitutional agreement dated 20 December 1994, that an accelerated procedure may be used for the fast-track adoption of codification instruments.

4. The purpose of this proposal is to undertake a codification of Council Regulation (EC) No 594/2008 of 16 June 2008 on certain procedures for applying the Stabilisation and Association Agreement between the European Communities and their Member States, of the one part, and Bosnia and Herzegovina, of the other part, and for applying the Interim Agreement on trade and trade-related matters between the European Community, of the one part, and Bosnia and Herzegovina, of the other part<sup>3</sup>. The new Regulation will supersede the various acts incorporated in it<sup>4</sup>; this proposal fully preserves the content of the acts being codified and hence does no more than bring them together with only such formal amendments as are required by the codification exercise itself.

5. The codification proposal was drawn up on the basis of a preliminary consolidation, in 22 official languages, of Regulation (EC) No 594/2008 and the instrument amending it, carried out by the Publications Office of the European Union, by means of a data-processing system. Where the Articles have been given new numbers, the correlation between the old and the new numbers is shown in a table set out in Annex II to the codified Regulation.

- (2) A Stabilisation and Association Agreement between the European Communities and their Member States, of the one part, and Bosnia and Herzegovina, of the other part ('SAA'), was signed in Luxembourg on 16 June 2008.
- (3) On 16 June 2008 the Council concluded an Interim Agreement on trade and traderelated matters between the European Community, of the one part, and Bosnia and Herzegovina, of the other part<sup>8</sup> ('Interim Agreement') which  $\boxtimes$  provided  $\boxtimes$  for the early entry into force of the trade and trade-related provisions of the SAA. The Interim Agreement  $\boxtimes$  entered  $\bigotimes$  into force on  $\boxtimes$  1 July 2008  $\bigotimes$ .
- (4) It is necessary to lay down the procedures for applying certain provisions of the Interim Agreement. Since the trade and trade-related provisions of ⊠ those ≪ instruments are to a very large extent identical, this Regulation should also apply to the implementation of the SAA after its entry into force.
- (5) The SAA and the Interim Agreement stipulate that fishery products originating in Bosnia and Herzegovina may be imported into the ⊠ Union ⊠ at a reduced customs duty, within the limits of tariff quotas. It is therefore necessary to lay down provisions regulating the management of ⊠ those ⊠ tariff quotas.
- (6) Where trade defence measures become necessary, they should be adopted in accordance with the general provisions laid down in Council Regulation (EC) No 260/2009<sup>9</sup>, Council Regulation (EC) No 1061/2009<sup>10</sup>, Council Regulation (EC) No 1225/2009<sup>11</sup> or, as the case may be, Council Regulation (EC) No 597/2009<sup>12</sup>.
- (7) Where a Member State provides the Commission with information on a possible fraud or failure to provide administrative cooperation, the relevant  $\boxtimes$  Union  $\bigotimes$  legislation shall apply, in particular Council Regulation (EC) No 515/97<sup>13</sup>.
- (8) For the purposes of implementing the relevant provisions of this Regulation the Commission should be assisted by the Customs Code Committee established by Article 285 of Regulation (EU) No 952/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council<sup>14</sup>.
