COUNCIL DECISION

concluding the agreement establishing a framework for an Economic Partnership Agreement between the European Community and its Member States, on one part, and the East African Community Partner States, on the other part

(presented by the Commission)

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

The attached proposal constitutes the legal instrument for the conclusion of an agreement establishing a framework for an Economic Partnership Agreement (FEPA) between the European Community and its Member States, on one part, and the EAC Partner States, on the other part:

(i) Proposal for a Council Decision concluding the agreement establishing a framework for an Economic Partnership Agreement (FEPA).

As announced in the Communication to the Council and the European Parliament dated 23 October 2007, FEPA has been negotiated to avoid disrupting trade with the Community on the expiry of the trade regime set out in Annex V of the Cotonou Agreement on 31 December 2007 and the World Trade Organisation (WTO) waiver covering that trade regime. These negotiations were concluded by the initialling of the FEPA on 27 November 2007 before the expiry of the trade regime set out in Annex V of the Cotonou Agreement on 31 December 2007 and the World Trade Organisation (WTO) waiver covering that trade regime.

As a result all five EAC Partner States (Burundi, Kenya, Rwanda, Tanzania and Uganda) were included in the list of countries in Annex 1 of the EPA Market Access Regulation adopted by Council on 20 December 2007<sup>1</sup> that have benefited from the Community market access offer made in the context of EPAs from 1 January 2008. Their inclusion on this list will become permanent following ratification of FEPA by all parties. This will ensure a harmonised trade regime with the EU providing improved market access for all EAC Partner States, including the four countries recognised as Least Developed Countries by the United Nations.

FEPA is an agreement establishing a framework for an EPA the scope of which will be extended by the outcome of negotiations for a comprehensive EPA reached by July 2009. It includes all the measures necessary to establish a Free Trade Area compatible with the provisions of Article XXIV of the GATT 1994<sup>2</sup>. This agreement also contains provisions on rules of origin, non-tariff measures, trade defence measures, dispute avoidance and settlement, as well as fisheries and administrative and institutional provisions.

The negotiation of a full EPA continues consistently with the directives for EPAs with ACP States adopted by Council on 12 June 2002.

The institutional provisions include an EPA Council composed of representatives of the Parties to be responsible for the implementation of the agreement.

Pending the entry into force of the FEPA, the Agreement foresees the provisional application of the Agreement.

The Commission has judged the results of the negotiations to be satisfactory and in accordance with the negotiating directives from the Council and requests the Council:

- to conclude the FEPA on behalf of the Community.

The European Parliament will be called upon to give its assent to the conclusion of the FEPA.

The Member States are also parties to the Agreement, which therefore needs to be ratified by them according to their internal procedures.
