Remarks

New item

This preparatory action should last two years, with a total budget of EUR 1 000 000, and should enable the Commission, with the assistance of external experts, to prepare the setting up of an EU Mediation Support Group (MSG) within the European External Action Service (EEAS), in accordance with the 'EU Concept on Strengthening EU Mediation and Dialogue Capacities', by:

- developing and making available training and internal capacity-building opportunities in connection with mediation- and dialogue-related tasks and also situation awareness for EEAS staff at headquarters, EU personnel deployed in missions and heads of delegation and their staff;
- engaging in knowledge management, including lessons-learned processes, identification of best practices and development of guidelines;
- preparing for the establishment of a roster of deployable experts in mediation and dialogue processes, taking into consideration the ongoing work of the UN and other organisations in setting up such rosters.

The preparatory action should be seen as a first step in strengthening, and providing sustainable support for, mediation initiatives by first increasing the EU's internal capabilities without excluding support in the form of external and contractual expertise. The action should be followed up by an evaluation, a reflection process and, possibly, decisions on formally establishing an MSG within the EEAS.

Legal basis

Preparatory action within the meaning of Article 49(6) of Council Regulation (EC, Euratom) No 1605/2002 of 25 June 2002 on the Financial Regulation applicable to the general budget of the European Communities (OJ L 248, 16.9.2002, p. 1).
